

NOTHING IN COMMON?

MY NEIGHBOUR IS A FREELoader!

MY NEIGHBOUR IS A RACIST!

Dave and Azeem live next door to each other, they are both aged 28. They don't get on... but they have never even spoken to each other.

BLOODY RACKET!

Dave is grieving after the loss of his mother. He's annoyed with his neighbour playing the same loud music over and over.

After a few hours Dave decides to go round and complain.

Azeem apologises for the noise and explains he has had word that his mother has died in a car bombing! The music he has been playing is from his sister's wedding when they were last together. Dave feels terrible and explains he has just lost his mother too...

SO HE WOULD WORK IF HE COULD!

MAYBE HE'S NOT A RACIST AFTER ALL

Azeem invites him in for tea. They start to chat and discover they're both fans of the same football team. Azeem explains he is a mechanic but cannot get a job because he can't write English. Dave enjoys tinkering with old motorbikes and asks Azeem why his bike isn't running well...
